Welcome! Please read the following carefully. By accessing or playing any of my games, you agree to the following terms:

1. Usage Responsibility

These games are provided “as-is” for entertainment purposes only. You are fully responsible for when, where, and how you choose to play them. This includes but is not limited to:

- During school hours or in class
- On school devices
- In locations or situations where game-playing is not permitted

If you get caught by a teacher, parent, or any authority figure — I am not responsible for any consequences, disciplinary actions, or awkward conversations that follow.

2. No Liability

I, the creator of these games, am not liable for:

- Detention, demerit points, or PLD confiscation by Ms Koo or any other teacher and/or authoritative figure
- Decrease in grades due to playing instead of studying
- Missed deadlines or assignments
- Arguments with friends over high scores... SIGHHHHHH

Play wisely and at your own discretion.

3. Game Content

All game content was created for fun and personal learning. If you find a bug, exploit, or unintended feature, feel free to enjoy it — but don't ruin the experience for others. No cheating, hacking, or unfair play.

4. Privacy & Data

These games do not collect any personal information (unless stated otherwise). If you're entering names or scores, they are only stored locally (or in your browser's memory) unless explicitly said to be uploaded.

5. Final Note

These games are meant to be fun, not troublemakers. Use common sense and don't play when you shouldn't. If you do... again, that's 100% your choice.

By playing any of my games, you agree to these terms.

Thanks for playing – and play responsibly!
